

Preserve Calavera Opposition of the 2018 McClellan-Palomar Airport Master Plan

“Preserve Calavera opposes the McClellan-Palomar Airport Master Plan project recently approved by the San Diego County Board of Supervisors. This project has failed to address numerous adverse environmental impacts associated with this planned airport expansion. Of particular concern is the failure to adequately mitigate for increased green house gasses at a time when action on the climate crisis is becoming critical.”